THE HOUSE

The House of Delegates convened at o clock yesterday morning with ayer by Rev. George W. Kemper. A rge number of bills were reported by mmittees and listed on the calendar Davis Reed, of Portsmouth, offered following joint resolution: J. Davis Reed, of Portsmouth, offered he following joint resolution:

"Whereas, the Commonwealth of Virinia is the owner of molus made from he Houdon statue of George Washingon in the rotunda of the State Capitol, which were made for the purpose of eproducing said statue so that a redica might be placed in the National statutary Hall in the Capitol of the integl States at Washington, which mas been accordingly done; and
"Whereas, said molds can be used only by the authority of the General issembly of Virginia, and are now in the custody of the manufacturers thereff, subject to the control of the General Assembly; and
"Whereas, unbroken peace and goodwill have existed between the United intes and Great Britain for more than century, and the people of Virginia netral in the warmest friendship for he people of their mother country; low, therefore, as a token of esteem and good-will, he it "Resolved by the House of Delegates of Virginia (the Senate concurring), orginia (the Senate concurring), a replica of said statue from said is be presented, as aforesaid, to United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

"2 That a commission, to be composed of the Governor, or such person or persons as he may name to represent him, the Lieutenant-Governor and the Speaker of the House of Delegates, be, and the same is hereby, constituted, with power and authority to have made from said molds a replica in bronze of the said Houdon statue of George Washington, and to present the same on behalf of the Commonwealth of Virginia to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

Approved by Page and Bryan.

In speaking to the resolution, Delegate Reed stated that on January 29 he had written to Walter H. Page, ambassador to the court of St. James, to inquire whether, in his opinion, such an action on the part of Virginia would be acceptable. In response he received the following cablegram:

The amendment was carried over the protest of Senator Echols, chairman of the Finance Committee, who asked that the matter be left for adjustment with the conference committee that will be appointed to put the bill in final form. Debate on the proposed increase took much the same form as the discussion on Wednesday over the $150,000 increase proposed by Senator Mapp. It was contended by friends of the amendment that the public schools were not given the share of the public revenues to which they are entitled, and	Going Down 77 A WINTER'S BUMP Of all our troubles 90 per cent are due to external accidents—"bumps."
